Consent and Release

I, the undersigned, have read, understand and agree to abide by the Rules governing the 2019 Youth Workplace Safety Video Contest (as set out in this Official Entry Form) and certify that all information contained in this completed Entry Form is true and accurate. By signing this Entry Form, I irrevocably grant Job Safety Skills Society of Alberta (JSSS) the right and permission to: (1) publicly disclose and use my name, the municipality I reside in, likeness, school, age, grade and/or prize information for promotional or other purposes, without compensation; and (2) to copy, modify, play and use the video submission ("Video") accompanying this Entry Form in whole or in part, without compensation. The Video has been originally and lawfully created by me or my team and the use, modification, play or reproduction of the Video by JSSS, will not give rise to any third-party claims for infringement or violation of copyright, trademark or any other right of any third party, or to any third-party claims including libel, defamation, violation of privacy or contract breach. I have obtained all necessary permissions, consents, licenses, or other approvals of third parties (including, but not limited to, all individuals appearing in the Video and all holders of copyright in any copyrighted music, images or other materials used in the Video) necessary or appropriate for the preparation or use of the Video and such approvals are enclosed. I release JSSS from any liability in connection with my participation in this contest, or the preparation or use of my or my team's Video and agree to indemnify JSSS for any liability and all reasonable costs arising from any third-party action, claim or proceeding commenced against JSSS because of the Video. I warrant that I am the owner of copyright or act with the authority of the owner to grant to JSSS the non-exclusive worldwide right to use the copyright material.

IMAGE RELEASE FORM

I, _____ (insert name of video participant), grant permission to _____ (insert name of contest entrant) (described hereafter as the “Entrant”) and to the Job Safety Skills Society, (hereinafter known as “JSSS”) to use my likeness for use in a video entered by the Entrant (the “Video”) in the 2019 Youth Workplace Safety Video Contest (“Contest”) and for further use by JSSS in publications resulting from the Contest or generally in its JobSafe program including but not limited to online video publication and distribution, Email Blasts, E-Newsletters, websites and Social Media, whether directly by JSSS or by third parties who have been given permission by JSSS to use the Video or portions thereof for similar purposes.

I hereby waive any right to inspect or approve the finished photographs or video or other electronic matter derived from the Video that may include my Image that may be used in conjunction with them now or in the future, whether that use is known to me or unknown, and I waive any right to royalties or other compensation arising from or related to the use of my Image. I acknowledge that I have been given a complete copy of the Contest Rules by the Entrant and I understand that JSSS is not responsible or liable if the Entrant has failed to provide a complete copy, or has altered them in any way. I further acknowledge that the Entrant may be eligible to receive a prize for entering the Video in the Contest and that while my Image may appear in the Video, I am not myself entering the Contest or eligible for a prize.

Your personal information is collected and used only for the purposes of administering the Youth Workplace Safety Video Contest, and will not be disclosed except as may be specifically mentioned in the associated contest Rules, with your written consent or as may otherwise be permitted or required by the Personal Information Protection Act (Alberta). Questions regarding the collection, disclosure and use of your personal information may be directed to Karleigh Stevenson (k Stevenson@jsss.ca).

Eligibility:

1. Application forms must be fully completed or submissions will be disqualified.
2. To be eligible, your entry must be no longer than two (2) minutes in length.
3. Each contestant may only enter one original entry, either alone or as part of a team effort.
4. Each contestant must certify on the entry form, that the submission is an original work by the contestant or his/her team and must grant Job Safety Skills Society of Alberta (JSSS) unrestricted use and reproduction rights for any purpose.
5. This contest is open to all high school students residing in Alberta.
6. Your entry must be entirely your (or in the case of a team effort, your team's) own original creation. It must not infringe upon or violate any laws or any third-party rights, including, but not limited to, copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret or other proprietary rights and must not lead to any cause of action including libel, defamation, privacy violation, contract breach or tort.
7. Contestants must obtain all necessary permissions, licenses, clearances, releases, waivers of moral rights and other approvals from third parties (including but not limited to all copyright holders and all individuals appearing in the video submission), necessary to use the video submission, in whole or in part, in any way, including without limitation, to reproduce, make derivatives, edit, modify, translate, distribute, transmit, publish, license and broadcast the video submission worldwide, by any means. Any and all such permissions, licenses, clearances, releases, waivers of moral rights and approvals must be attached with your entry.

General Information:

8. Your own personal health and safety and the health and safety of your cast, crew and others involved with the production of the video submission must be maintained. Do not endanger anyone during the making of your video. If you are on a work site, take all appropriate health and safety precautions including without limitation following all applicable health and safety policies and regulations. You may wish to consult with a supervisor or other competent individual at the site to obtain this information.
9. No entries will be returned. All winning entries become the sole property of JSSS.
10. A maximum of three prizes will be available to be awarded in this contest. Three payments of one thousand five hundred ($1500) each may be awarded to each of the top three placing entries, for a maximum total of Four Thousand Five Hundred ($4500) in prize money in total. In the case of team entries, each team will only be eligible to win a total payment of one thousand five hundred dollars to be divided equally among the number of individual members.

11. Before collecting a prize, each individual or team member involved in the creation of a winning entry, and, in the case of those individuals or team members who have not yet reached the age of majority, his/her parent or legal guardian may be required to sign a declaration and release form confirming compliance with the contest rules, and acceptance of the prize as awarded and assigning all rights, titles and interests in the entry to JSSS (including a waiver of moral rights) within such period of time directed by JSSS upon being notified that his/her entry has been selected.
12. If a contestant is not 18 years old, JSSS will require his or her parent's or legal guardian's authorization before permitting the contestant to participate in the contest and accept a prize as awarded. In the case of a team effort, each member of the team who is not 18 years old must also obtain parental or guardian consent.
13. When entering this contest, each contestant (and where appropriate, with the consent of a parent or guardian) must consent to the use, reproduction, publication, transmission and/or broadcasting of his/her name, address, likeness, school, age, grade and/or prize information, without compensation, in any JSSS advertisement, publication or promotion, for general news or other information purposes. Winners must also consent to their photographs being taken by JSSS for the same purposes, without further compensation. Each contestant (and where required, his/her parent or guardian) irrevocably and in perpetuity grants JSSS, without compensation, the right to use the video submission, in whole or in part, in any way, including without limitation, to reproduce, make derivatives, edit, modify, translate, distribute, transmit, publish, license and broadcast the submission worldwide, by any means.
14. The chances of winning a prize depend on the total number and quality of eligible entries received prior to the closing date.
15. JSSS reserves the right to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the contest for any reason, without any prior notice to any contestant.

Selection of Awards:

16. Entries will be judged by a panel of judges chosen by JSSS. The decisions of the judges on all matters relating to the contest are final and not open to dispute.
17. Each individual or team member who submitted a winning entry will be notified by email that his/her entry has won and the procedure to follow to claim the applicable prize. If an individual or one or more team members decline the prize, the prize may be forfeited and awarded to another entry in accordance with these contest rules. If JSSS does not receive entries of sufficient quantity or quality, JSSS reserves the right not to award any prizes.
18. Prizes will be awarded at the winner's school, with the signing teacher present.

Entry Information:

19. Each contestant or team may only submit one submission in MP4 format, on a flash drive, except in the sole discretion of JSSS. Multiple entries will not be accepted. Flash drives will not be returned, and the cost will not be reimbursed by JSSS.
20. Your submission must be received by JSSS by 4:00 pm on MARCH 6, 2020. You will not be contacted to confirm your submission has been received.

Winning videos will be announced by April 3, 2020. Prizes will be distributed to winners in the form of a cheque on or before April 3, 2020.

21. Please submit your entry by mail or courier to:
Youth Workplace Safety Video Contest
c/o Job Safety Skills Society
11, 12122 – 68 Street NW, Edmonton, AB T5B 1R1
22. The entry must be clearly labeled with your video's title, your name, mailing address and telephone number. Where more than one student has been involved in the creation of the video, the video entry must be clearly labeled as a team effort.
23. Include your completed Official Entry Form with your video submission. If the entry is a team effort, page 4 of the Official Entry Form must also be completed and returned with your entry. If the forms are not submitted within the required timeframe or are incomplete, the entry will be disqualified.
24. If any copyright or permissions, licenses, clearances, releases, waivers of moral rights and approvals were obtained, please enclose these with your video entry. JSSS is not responsible for entries which are delayed, lost, misdirected, incomplete, damaged or destroyed. Any entry that is tampered with, unreadable or mutilated will not be accepted. DO NOT SEND YOUR ONLY COPY.
25. For the purpose of these Rules, each properly labeled video submission accompanied by a properly completed Official Entry Form shall be considered a valid entry.
26. These rules may be changed without notice or reason including, if necessary, to comply with any applicable law. By entering this contest, contestants agree to abide by these rules and acknowledge that JSSS shall not be responsible for any damages, costs, demands, claims or losses of any kind, incurred by any contestant as a result of participation in the JSSS Youth Workplace Safety Video Contest.
27. This contest shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and any applicable federal laws. These rules govern all aspects of the contest and are binding on all contestants and all other participants including parents, legal guardians and team members, who sign the Official Entry Form.
